

CALICO AND DENIM will be the order of the day Saturday when North Torrance West Little League holds its Cotton and Jeans Dance at the American Legion Hall. Music will be provided by the Bob Seddon Combo band. Admission will be $1. Pictured getting in the swing are (left to right): Mrs. Al Gayda, Mrs. William Myers, Gene Groce, Mrs. Wesley Jones and Wesley Jones. —PRESS photo

Women

RONNIE SAUNDERS, Society Editor

TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

CDA Presents Evening of 'Culture and Caprice'

An evening of "Culture and Caprice," will be the theme of the March social meeting of Catholic Daughters, Court Our Lady of Victory, as planned by hospitality co-chairmen Mmes. Stacy Rodman and Fred Gervig, for 8 p. m. tomorrow at Knights of Columbus Hall, 214 Ave. I, Redondo Beach.

Mrs. Richard Wurm Jr., grand regent, has extended an invitation to the public to view John Cunningham's collection of "Jewels of the Madonna," and Mrs. Vera Lockyer's "Millinery of Distinction" from Paris Hats.

Mr. Cunningham, proprietor of Casa de España Antiques in Redondo, will show rosaries which he gathered during his travels in all parts of the world, some of which date back to the time of Marco Polo.

Mrs. Lockyer, owner of the Paris Hat Shop in South Bay Center, will provide hats from her spring display. Models will include Mmes. William Taylor, D. Gaitan, Norman Dupont, Merle Nave, Willard Phippen, Noel Rimer, Raymond Slick, Edgar Perry, Kenneth Clark, Raymond Russell and Margaret Breidenbach. The evening will be topped off by a hat parade of surprise models. Guests will be invited to try on the selection on hand.

Proceeds from the hat sale will go towards court charities.

Past grand regents, the Mmes. Edmund Chandlee, Paul Hogan, Lyle Peters, Nicolas Humting and members Mmes. Richard Ab-shear and Felix O'Reilly, hostesses for the evening, will don some of the colorful spring hat collection.

SELECTING HATS for a fashion show to be presented tomorrow evening are members of Court Our Lady of Victory, Catholic Daughters of America. An evening of "Culture and Caprice" will take place at 8 p. m. at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 214 Ave. I, Redondo Beach. Presenting millin-ary will be Mrs. Vera Lockyer. "Jewels of the Madonna," a collection of antique rosaries, will be shown by John Cunningham. Pictured are: (left to right) Mmes. William Taylor, Janet Dupont and Vera Lockyer.

—PRESS photo

VOLUNTEERING SERVICES to the American Cancer Society are members of St. Catherine Labouré Catholic Church Women's Council. Mrs. Dale Galbreath (left) and Mrs. William Fuller (right) of Torrance recently attended a briefing session prior to their work in the Cancer Society's annual April crusade.

Belinda Worthen Weds Frank Sieh

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Worthen of 4922 Calle de Arboles, Torrance, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Belinda Ann, to Frank O. Sieh.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Sieh of 205 Calle de Madrid, Hollywood Riviera.

A graduate of South High School, the bride was a life member of the California Scholarship Federation, president of G.A.A., president of Athena, member of Tri-Hi-Y, member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, summer counselor for the YMCA childrens camp, and recipient of the Hollywood Riviera Rotary Club Scholarship. She attended El Camino College while still in her Senior Year at South High.

Mr. Sieh, also a graduate of South High School, was president of JETS, a science and technical club, member of the YMCA Falcons, life member of the California Scholarship Federation and upon graduation, enrolled at the University of California at Berkeley.

The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. James Comfort Smith in the chapel of St. John's Presbyterian Church in Berkeley. After a brief honeymoon at Carmel - By - The - Sea the young couple returned to their studies at the University of California at Berkeley.

Mr. and Mrs. Worthen entertained at an open house for the newly-married couple Saturday evening.

Sorority Takes Armchair Tour

Continuing an armchair trip around the world, members of Xi Theta Xi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority visited India and Southwestern Asia recently at the home of Mrs. Charles Ray.

Mrs. Ray and Mrs. John Ward, co-chairmen, presented Miss Rosemary Sharrow and Miss Catherine Fitzgerald, who recently returned from a trip around the world.

A slide program, narrated by Miss Sharrow, dealt with the Holy Land. Slides included ancient churches and the land of the Dead Sea Scrolls.

Also shown were slides depicting life in India, from the architectural wonder of the Taj Mahal to living conditions of the people, many of whom still cultivate their land, market their produce and home-made wares, and continue to dress in the manner not changed with time, according to Mrs. Sharrow.

Mrs. E. F. Ferris displayed items of interest from a collection of Holy Land objects.

During the business portion of the meeting, conducted by Mrs. Lola Abrams, president, Mrs. Doyle Davison gave a report of the South Bay Area Council's Founder's Day committee.

Members of Xi Theta Xi chapter will have charge of the table decorations to be used at the affair, she stated.

Mrs. Abrams appointed Mrs. Robert Sandes, Mrs. Ward, Mrs. Davison and

Mrs. Ted Iske to serve on the committee for the rush dinner to be given at the home of Mrs. Sandes.

The chapter voted to make a monetary contribution to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, state philanthropic project for the sorority.

Mrs. Davison received the "thank you for coming" gift presented by Mrs. Abrams.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Ward and Mrs. Ray. Among those present were Mmes. Robert Nickelson, E. T. Ferris, Le Roy Huisenga, Doyle Davison, Paul Ballinger, Ted Iske, Robert Sandes, Robert aKne and Lola Abrams.

Carson 4-H Girls Demonstrate In Montebello

Three Carson 4-H girls competed in a district demonstration contest Saturday, March 16, at Montebello High School, Montebello.

Sherry Jennings, 11, 1075 W. 209th St., demonstrated "A Neat Finish" and Genevieve Moody, 11, of 1036 W. 209th St., demonstrated "Ironing." Lynn Kelly, 11, of 603 W. 314th St., gave a demonstration called "Insects and the Killing Jar."

ADVICE

To accept good advice is but to increase one's own ability.

—Goethe

MODELS REHEARSE for "Mexican Holiday" fashion show to be presented at luncheon Saturday by the Torrance Woman's Club and Torrance Junior Woman's Club. The 1 p. m. event will be at the Hacienda Hotel in San Pedro. Fashions will be shown by Jill Seltons of the Peninsula Center, Zoyas of the Riviera and the Candlelight Gown Shop of Torrance. Receiving instructions from Mrs. J. P. Bay, president of the Torrance Woman's Club, are (left to right): Mmes. B. W. Roberts, Jack Dean and David Wade.

—PRESS photo

Concert Set for Sunday

The Music Committee of the Pacific Unitarian Church will present its first annual spring concert at 8 p. m. Sunday at Torrance Women's Club, 1422 Engracia, Torrance.

First half of the concert will feature Stella Harman, soprano; David Sherr, flutist; Kay Grantham, pianist, and Eloise Goodwin, pianist.

Following these performances will be a Gilbert and Sullivan comic opera, "Trial by Jury." Soloists featured in the operetta will be William Grantham, tenor; Carol Jenison, soprano; Loren Salter, tenor; Dar McCormick, baritone; Henry Fink Jr., baritone; Paul Gays, tenor.

Chorus and orchestra will be under the direction of Eugene Minor of Torrance. A 1958 graduate of Narbonne High School, Minor attended Los Angeles City College and is presently a music major at Los Angeles State College. He organized and conducted the Harbor Area Youth Symphony for three years.

Minor has appeared as a guest conductor of the South Bay Civic Symphony and has served as assistant conductor with the Narbonne High School band and orchestra, the Los Angeles City College Band and other orchestra and chamber music groups.

Ticket information may be obtained by calling FRontier 5-1926 or 379-1249.